

Prophets, Horses, and Horns

What is the best advice you've ever received?

Read Zechariah 1:1-3:5

1. Who had the fathers of the people ignored?
 - A. The angels.
 - B. The prophets.
 - C. Their children.
 - D. Their servants.
 - E. The Bible.
 - F. Each other.
 - G. Zechariah.
 - H. Other.

2. What did the horses in Zechariah's vision represent?
 - A. Nothing, they were just horses.
 - B. The people of Jerusalem.
 - C. The prophets.
 - D. Everyday transportation.
 - E. The ones God had sent.
 - F. The fathers of the people.
 - G. Future kings and rulers.
 - H. Other.

3. What did the four horns represent?
 - A. Cows.
 - B. The four horsemen of death.
 - C. Four of the most powerful rulers.
 - D. The nations and hardships that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.
 - E. The prophets the people had ignored.
 - F. Four plagues.
 - G. The four Gospels.
 - H. Other.

4. What were the four craftsmen going to do?
 - A. Eat dinner.
 - B. Make crafts.
 - C. Visit family.
 - D. Ride the horses.
 - E. Make a statue.
 - F. Get rid of the horns.
 - G. Other.

5. Who did Joshua represent?
 - A. The people then, and us now.
 - B. A priest.
 - C. An angel.
 - D. A condemned sinner.
 - E. One of the craftsmen.
 - F. One of the horses.
 - G. Other.

6. What was the significance of exchanging the filthy robes for new ones?
 - A. You need to make yourself righteous.
 - B. Clothing yourself with God's light.
 - C. He bought new clothes.
 - D. It was laundry day.
 - E. People just don't like dirty clothes.
 - F. Taking away human iniquity and replacing it with God's righteousness.
 - G. Other.

7. What is some advice you should have listened to but ignored instead?

8. How do you know that God is still working with you to give you hope and a future?