

A Particularly Bad Day—Part 2

When did things go from bad to worse for you in just one day?

Read Esther 7:1-10.

1. What request does the king anticipate Esther will ask?
 - A. For up to half of the kingdom.
 - B. The whole kingdom.
 - C. Another dinner date.
 - D. He has no idea what's coming.
 - E. More special attention from the king.
 - F. Another party.
 - G. The king can hardly stand the suspense any longer.
 - H. A remodel of the women's quarters.
 - I. Other.

2. Why did Esther finally disclose her request?
 - A. She had built it to the maximum point of impact.
 - B. Action needed to be taken to stop Haman now.
 - C. Her patience for Haman had been fully extinguished.
 - D. The time seemed just right.
 - E. Haman had been set up and he didn't see it coming.
 - F. Haman was already reeling and was off his game.
 - G. So many had prayed for her that it seemed it was time to act.
 - H. The truth about Haman needed to be exposed to the king.
 - I. Other.

3. What was Esther's request?
 - A. The annihilation of Haman.
 - B. The eradication of Haman's family.
 - C. Another meal another night.
 - D. That her life be spared.
 - E. A fighting chance to combat Haman.
 - F. To spare the life of her people.
 - G. That she and her people be allowed to become slaves.
 - H. A bouquet of forget-me-nots.
 - I. Other.

